Mr. Martin Philipsborn, Jr.

[Redacted]

Dear Mr. Philipsborn:

Thank you very much for your letter of 15 December.

Mr. Jackson is extremely sorry that his schedule prevents him from having either breakfast or lunch with you on Saturday, 23 December. Could you come in to see him at 10:30, Saturday morning, 23 December? If this appointment is not convenient for you, please call me Saturday morning. The telephone number is: [Redacted]

19 Dec 50 - Mr. Philipsborn's secy called and asked if Mr. Jackson planned to have breakfast with Mr. Philipsborn; she was informed of the above letter. She stated that Mr. Philipsborn planned to go to NY first and would not come to Washington early if Mr. J. could not breakfast with him. Told her would schedule the appointment for 11:30, 23 December.

Later, Mr. Philipsborn's secy called again and said the earliest he could make an appointment with Mr. J. was 4:00, 23 Dec. After checking with DDCI, she was informed that Mr. Jackson was leaving the city Saturday afternoon and could not see Mr. Philipsborn that late in the afternoon. Left that Mr. Philipsborn would try to make an appointment another time when he is in Washington; but told her that if Mr. Philipsborn wished to change his schedule, please advise.

Dear [Redacted]:

Thank you for your note of December 11th.

I find I shall be in Washington
the morning of Saturday, the 23rd December, and I shall leave Washington the afternoon of Monday, the 25th December. I very much doubt whether Mr.
Jackson will be available between these dates.
Would you suggest to him that he might care to meet me for breakfast, (or for lunch), the 23rd
December at the Army and Navy Club.

If he would like to meet me for breakfast, I shall be there any time after 8:00 o'clock in the morning, and I should appreciate hearing from you by return air mail in order that I may have the letter before I leave Chicago.

Sincerely yours,

MP:eb
